

Easter Sunday

*Let us not mock God with metaphor, Analogy, sidestepping, transcendence,
Making of the event a parable, a sign painted in the faded
Credulity of earlier ages:
Let us walk through the door.*

*The stone is rolled back, not papier-mache,
Not a stone in a story,
But the vast rock of materiality that in the slow grinding of
Time will eclipse for each of us
The wide light of day.*

~ John Updike

Children's programming is available during both services on the lower level, see page 15 for details.

Large Print orders of worship and devices to improve hearing are available in the back of the sanctuary.

Welcome

Psalm 3, by Poor Bishop Hooper; Melissa Norton, Covenant Choir, Erica Norman, PD Young

Choral: *I slept in fear, but I woke in safety
For You, O Lord, are always watching over me
And though ten thousand, though ten thousand stand against me
You answered
Oh, You answered*

Change the Color: The cross was covered in black on Good Friday to reflect mourning and the abandonment of Christ by his followers and the rejection of Christ by the Father. White reflects the hope of the resurrection, as well as the purity and newness that comes from victory over sin and death.

Choral: *Salvation belongs to only You, God
Arise, O Lord
Arise, O Lord*

All Sing: Salvation belongs to only You, God
Arise, O Lord
Arise, O Lord

Confession of Sin, John 3: 16-17

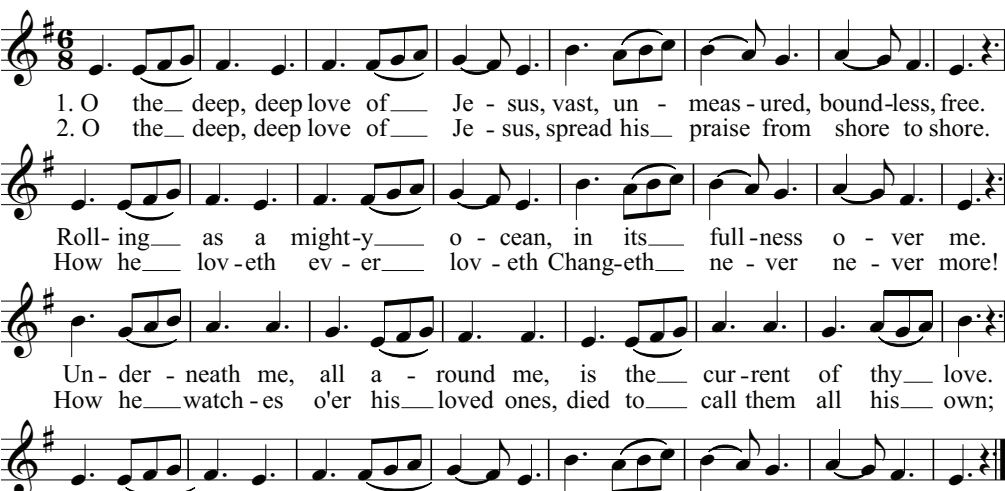

Leader: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Silent time to pray and confess

Prayer of silent confession:

Most merciful God,
I confess that I have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what I have done,
and by what I have left undone.
I have not loved you with my whole heart;
I have not loved my neighbor as myself.
I am truly sorry and I humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on me and forgive me;
that I may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

All:

1. O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, vast, un - meas - ured, bound-less, free.
2. O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, spread his praise from shore to shore.

Roll - ing as a might - y o - cean, in its full - ness o - ver me.
How he lov - eth ev - er lov - eth Chang - eth ne - ver ne - ver more!

Un - der - neath me, all a - round me, is the cur - rent of thy love.
How he watch - es o'er his loved ones, died to call them all his own;

Lead ing on - ward, lead - ing home - ward, to thy glor - ious rest a - bove.
how for them he int - er - ce - deth. Watch - eth o'er them from his throne!

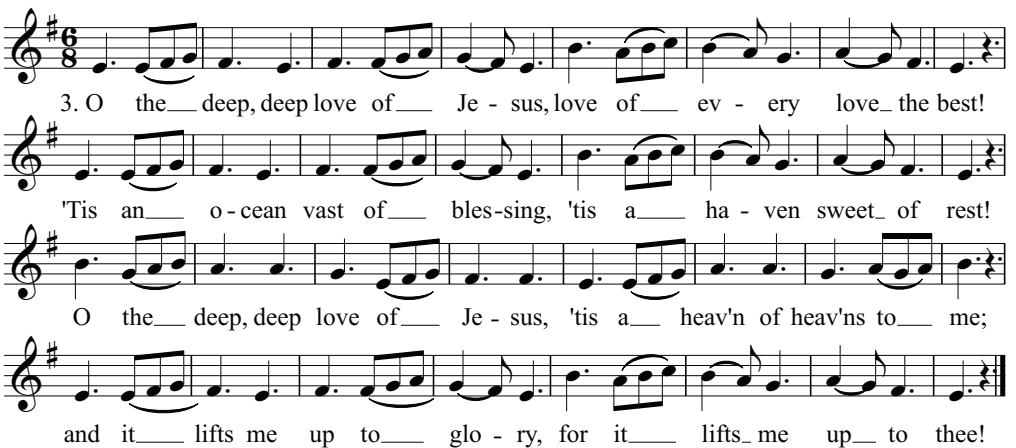

O the Deep Deep Love of Jesus, Words: Samuel Francis (1834-1925). Music: Thomas Williams, 1890.

Assurance of Pardon, from Romans 8

Leader: There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus and if God is for us, who can be against us?

All: Neither death nor life,
nor angels nor rulers,
nor things present nor things to come,
nor powers,
nor height nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation,
will separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All:

3. O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, love of ev - ery love the best!
'Tis an o - cean vast of bles - sing, 'tis a ha - ven sweet of rest!
O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, 'tis a heav'n of heav'ns to me;
and it lifts me up to glo - ry, for it lifts me up to thee!

The musical score consists of four staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 6/8 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line. The lyrics are: "3. O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, love of ev - ery love the best! 'Tis an o - cean vast of bles - sing, 'tis a ha - ven sweet of rest! O the deep, deep love of Je - sus, 'tis a heav'n of heav'ns to me; and it lifts me up to glo - ry, for it lifts me up to thee!"

The Word

Pastor Aaron Baker

Don't Be Afraid, Matthew 28:1–10, p.835

¹ Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ² And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. ⁴ And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. ⁵ But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you." ⁸ So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

Sacrament of Communion

2 Corinthians 13:11-14: Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

Leader: May the grace of the risen Lord Jesus Christ, and the redeeming love of God the Father and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be and abide with you all.

All: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts

All: We lift them to the Lord.

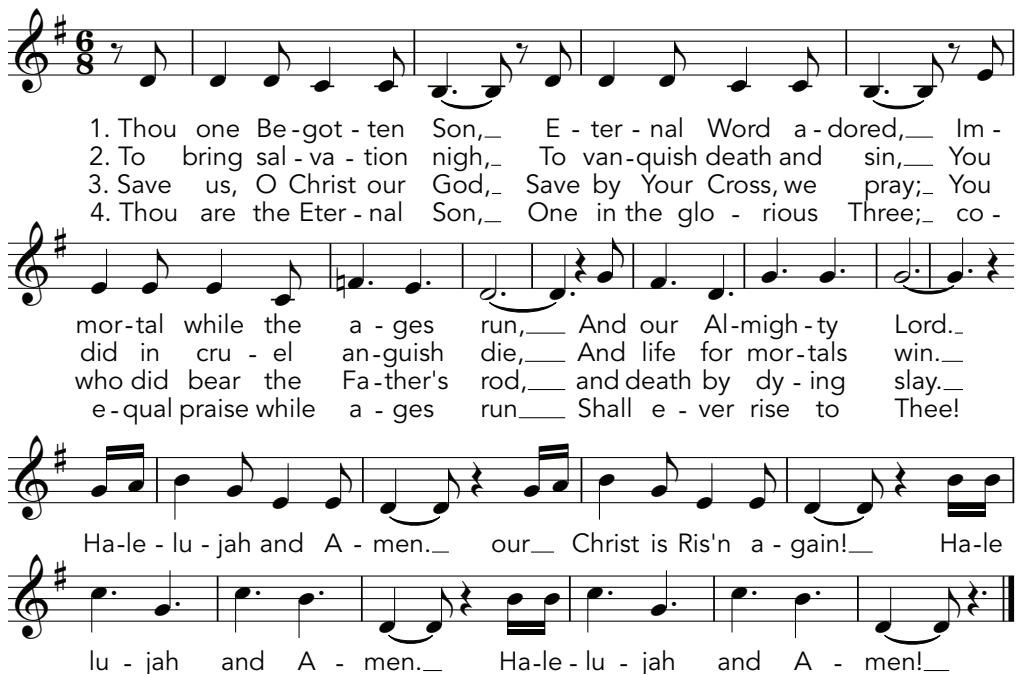

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

All: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Greet each other in the name of Christ

Giving back to God a portion of what he's already given us is an important part of the Christian life. The bread and wine we use in communion are a picture of the gifts that God has given us, offered back to him as an act of worship. You can offer your resources back to God in support of the work of the church by placing your offering in the boxes in the back on the way out. You can also give online at covenantchicago.org/give, use the QR code on page 15, or text a donation amount to 84321.

Silent prayers for reflection

Prayer for those taking communion

Lord Jesus, your perfect life, your death and resurrection are the source of all blessing in this life and the life to come. As I eat this bread and drink this cup, renew me in the joy and glory of knowing and serving you. I come to this table on the basis of your merit only and not my own. As you have completely and fully offered yourself for me, I now completely and fully offer myself to you as a living sacrifice. Amen.

Prayer for those searching for truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer of belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior and Lord. Amen.

Respond to the Table

Leader: Remembering your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we take from your creation this bread and this wine and joyfully celebrate his dying and rising, as we await the day of his coming.
With thanksgiving we offer our very selves to you to be a living and holy sacrifice dedicated to your service.

All: Great is this mystery of faith:
Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

All Sing:

Salvation belongs to only You, God
Arise, O Lord
Arise, O Lord

The Work of the People

Romans 12:4–6, For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them.

in Statement of Faith

Apostle's Creed

All: I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ
his only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried:
He descended into hell;
The third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Covenant Life

Worship Together:

We are made to worship the Triune God, and our worship is always ordered around Jesus Christ and the forgiveness and grace he secured for us by his cross, resurrection and ascension. Gathering around this good news together on Sundays strengthens our appetites, imaginations and abilities to live as followers of Jesus.

Grow and Learn Together:

Learning about our faith and growing together in it forms us into human beings who are fully swept up into the work God is doing to reconcile all things to himself in Jesus. Learning is more than simply knowing; it is the internalization of truth that leads to mature thinking and acting.

Serve Together:

The natural outcome of receiving and experiencing grace is to be propelled outward into mission and service. All of us have been given gifts to use for the good of our common life and for the good of the broken world around us, and we encourage everyone to regularly use their gifts in service.
